SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Outside name checks are not performed for former residents of Italy. Posts with CLASS capability should not send IV clearance requests to Milan, Naples, or Rome unless a CLASS check indicates derogatory information on file there.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

Police Record

(TL:VISA-381; 04-02-2002)

Available. The Certificato Generale del Casellario Giudiziale is a certified record of final court convictions and decisions regarding mental incompetency and bankruptcy or a statement that no such record exists (Nulla).

Persons within Italy can obtain the certificate by applying in person or by mail at any office of the Procura della Repubblica. Such offices are located in all major cities and in many small cities and large towns. Those who apply in person must submit a written request, a photocopy of a photo ID, and all fees; the certificate is usually provided the day of the request.

Persons outside of Italy can obtain the certificate by writing to:
Ufficio del Casellario Giudiziale della Procura della Repubblica,
Piazzale Clodio,
00100 Rome, Italy

Those requesting the certificate by mail, whether from within or outside Italy, must submit a written request, a photocopy of a photo ID, and all fees, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Mail requests are normally processed within three working days. Information concerning fees and application procedures is available from any office of the Procura della Repubblica, or at procura.roma@giustizia.it.

Record of Conviction

(TL:VISA-381; 04-02-2002)

Available. If the person has been arrested and tried, he and/or she and/or his or her representative may request a copy of the sentence in person or by mail from the court where the trial took place.

Prison Record

(TL:VISA-1135; 02-26-1993)

Not available except as incorporated in the police record.

Military Record

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. The Foglio Matricolare is the usual record of military service. It gives complete details regarding military service, including convictions before court martials. Officers are issued the Stato di Servizio that contains more complete information than the Congedo Illimitato which is merely a discharge certificate. Military records may not be available to those who have not reported to their military district after leaving Italy. There is a fee for this service.

Birth Certificate

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. The Certificato (or Estratto) di Nascita is an extract of the report of birth which provides the date and place of birth. It can be obtained from the Office of Vital Statistics (Ufficio di Stato Civile) of the town where the applicant was born. Parents' names have not been included in Italian birth, marriage, citizenship, and family status certificates since 1955. To request a birth certificate including the parent's names, the applicant should apply to the Office of Vital Statistics, citing Article 3 of Presidential Decree of May 2, 1957, (No. 432) "...ai sensi dell'art. 3 Decreto Presidente della Repubblica 2 Maggio 1957."

The Atto Integrale di Nascita is a more complete document than the Certificato or Estratto di Nascita. In addition to the date of birth, it contains current information regarding the subject's civil status, such as the subsequent legitimation of a child, recognition by the natural parents, adoption, marriage, annulment of marriage, or death of a spouse. This document should ordinarily only be required to verify the legitimation of birth or adoption of a child. The Atto Integrale di Nascita can be obtained only after receipt of special authorization from the Procura della Repubblica of the judicial district where the applicant was born.

Marriage Certificate

(TL:VISA-1135; 02-26-1993)

Available. (Certificato di Matrimonio) Issued by the Office of Vital Statistics (Ufficio di Stato Civile) of the town where the person was born or resides. For those born outside of Italy, it is issued by the Office of Vital Statistics of either the town where the marriage was performed or the town where the foreign birth of the person was recorded.

Certificate of Single Status

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. (Certificato di Stato Libero) This document certifies the single status of persons who are of legal age to marry (18 or over). It is available from the Office of Vital Statistics (Ufficio di Stato Civile) of the town where the applicant was born or resides.

Record of Family Status

(TL:VISA-1135; 02-26-1993)

Available. (Stato di Famiglia) Contains the names, dates and places of birth, marital status, and, sometimes, the occupations of the immediate family.

Death Certificate

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. (Certificato di Morte) Issued by the Office of Vital Statistics (Ufficio di Stato Civile) of the town where the applicant was born or lived.

Certificate of Widow or Widower Status

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. (Certificato di Vidovanza) Issued by the Office of Vital Statistics (Ufficio di Stato Civile) of the town where the applicant was born or resides.

Divorce Decree

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. A Divorce Decree (Decreto di Divorzio) is issued by the town where the divorce was registered. Prior to 1974, only annulments or legal separations were granted by the Republic of Italy. Divorce has been legal since that date. A notation of divorce may be included on a birth or marriage certificate.

Adoption Certificate

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. An Adoption Decree (Decreto di Adozione) may be obtained through the Juvenile Court (Tribunale dei Minorenni) of the district where the adoption took place.

NOTE: Because of war-time destruction of church and state archives, it is impossible to obtain pre-war documents. Substitutes for birth and marriage certificates are authorized by the Italian Civil Code in the form of affidavits (Atti di Notorieta) sworn by four witnesses before the Lower Court (Pretura) of the district in which the interested person resides or was born.

Individuals who emigrated to work abroad and those who emigrated to join the head of the family may receive the following documents without charge (for others, there is a fee):

- Birth Certificate;
- Marriage Certificate;
- Certificate of Single Status;
- Record of Family Status;
- Death Certificate;
- Certificate of Widow or Widower Status;
- Penal Certificate;
- General Penal Certificate;
- Record of Changes pending before the Procura;
- Record of Charges pending before the Pretura; and
- Military Record.

It is simpler for those who do not live in Italy to apply for the documents they need through a family member who resides in Italy, or through the mayor of the town in which they were born. Former residents who are not Italian nationals may apply through the nearest Italian consulate or through the consulate of their country.

Processing time for the above documents is approximately 1 month, exclusive of mailing time, which is erratic.

Passports-Information on Travel Documents

(TL:VISA-257; 04-09-2001)

A travel document (Titre de Voyage), which has a gray cover, is issued to refugees granted permanent asylum in Italy on the basis of the Geneva Convention of February 28, 1951. A travel document (Titre de Voyage), which has a green cover, is a courtesy travel document issued to those other than refugees, usually stateless persons, who for any reason cannot obtain a passport from their government. Both documents are valid for one year and may be renewed annually if the bearer maintains the same status. Documents must contain an Italian reentry visa stamp whenever the bearer travels abroad. Both of these documents are considered to meet the passport requirements of the INA.

Italy began issuing machine-readable passports (MRP) in January of 1998. Only a limited amount of Italian embassies and consular offices issued the MRP the first year. The Italian Government is incrementally updating their posts to issue machine-readable passports. The old Italian passports were issued initially for a period of five years, and were able to be renewed for five more. Therefore, it will be at least 10 years until the old-style passport ceases to exist in volume.
